

The Italian Law Journal

An international forum for the critique of Italian Law

Dear Colleague,

We are delighted to announce that submissions are now open for Volume 5, Issue 1 (2019), which is scheduled to be published in July 2019. Articles complying with the editorial criteria and the cultural mission of the Journal (www.theitalianlawjournal.it) are welcome.

The Journal also invites contributions for its Corporate and Financial Markets Law section on topics related to the possible evolution of corporate governance structures and corporate finance, and innovations in capital markets brought forward by technological advancements such as distributed ledger technologies (eg, blockchain and the so-called cryptocurrencies), and Artificial Intelligence among others.

Please submit your article no later than 31 March 2019, or 30 April 2019 if you are a native English speaker and your article does not require editing for good English grammar and style. We accept submissions through Scholastica and ExpressO, or you can reach out to us directly at info@theitalianlawjournal.it. Further information on the general topics and aims of our Journal, as well as on the submission guidelines and the double-blind peer-review process is available at www.theitalianlawjournal.it.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions and to circulate this message to those who might be interested. We look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
