

CULTURE OF PEACE FOR THE SECURITY OF FUTURE GENERATIONS

NOVEMBER 22, 2017

UNIVERSITY “ROMA TRE”
GREAT HALL 10,30-13,00

VIALE OSTIENSE 159

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR THE PRESENTATION OF THE

“ABDULAZIZ SAUD AL-BABTAIN CHAIR FOR PEACE”

The globalization process entails as many opportunities as risks and challenges, particularly demanding on young generations.

In this context, Universities as well as Governmental institutions, NGOs and civil society worldwide need to intensify exchanges, dialogues, relations and develop efforts for a culture of peace as a key-factor for reaching not only a greater and better understanding between peoples, but also more realistic prospects in terms of educational goals for the formation of new generations of leaders, in face of the challenges that a shared world of peace carries with it.

Programme

Welcome greetings and Opening speeches:

Luca Pietromarchi, President University “Roma Tre”

Luigi Moccia, Centre of excellence Altiero Spinielli (CeAS), “Roma Tre”

Abdulaziz Saud Al-Babtain, Chairman of the Al-Babtain Cultural Foundation

The Inaugural Speech of the Chair:

Michael Frendo, President Emeritus of the Maltese Parliament

Speeches of:

Jorge Sampaio, former President of Portugal

Vincenzo Scotti, Former Minister of Interior, President of Link University

Franco Frattini, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Italy and President Società italiana per l’organizzazione internazionale (SIOI)

Charles Ferdinand Nothomb, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Belgium, President of the Foundation Dialogue Nord Sud

Marta Dassu, Former Secretary of State of Italy and President of Aspen Institute

Nejib Friji, Representative of IPI New York, Director IPI MENA

Michele Capasso, President of Fondazione Mediterraneo

George Ulrich, Secretary General of EIUC, European Inter University Centre for Human Rights and Democratization.